Old Business Short Term Regulations has had no changes. There is no time frame on getting an update.

New Business Julie asked what other HOAs have. If one of the buildings burns down, they have insurance that will rebuild from the drywall out. What about landscaping? Someone uses a subcontractor and the cost is part of the fees. What about snow removal Julia's HOA was sued when someone slipped and fell. You need a clause in your documents about snow and ice removal. Have you updated your rules lately? A lot of Colorado laws have necessitated rule changes. Altitude Law has done this for several HOAs. Do you have a newsletter or community notices? Yes, one member's new Management company sends them out and they are on the website.

The new County Website to report problems to Road and Bridges works well. You can submit a photo to show the problem. With a case number, you can check on it. You can request to get email when it completes.

Announcements None.

Columbine Knolls South II Review

From President's Corner — We held the bi-monthly HOA Board and members meeting on Tuesday, May 9th via Zoom, and had 30+ members in attendance. The focus of the meeting centered on the Architectural and Community Standards that were distributed to members ahead of this meeting via email. The initial goal was to try to adopt these Standards at the meeting but based on a great deal of thoughtful input and feedback from our members, the Board agreed more time and refinement is needed to ensure these Standards are appropriate for our community. Below are some common feedback questions, topics, and concerns we have collected so far from our members.

Why do we need these standards, and what triggered the Board to go down this path?

Concerns that some of the proposed standards are too restrictive for our community.

Concerns about the pathway for adoption of these standards (i.e., Why is this a Board only vote and not a vote by the membership?).

Need for longer time to review and comment, with clear instructions for returning feedback.

HOA does not have my email address, who can I give that to?

The Board's goal is to provide responses to these and other questions once we've had an opportunity to review and process all the feedback. That said, it is important we have up-to-date email contact information you. There are several ways you can provide your contact information. You can contact our community manager Mark Dougal at Keystone Denver Property Management at mdougal@keystonepacific.com or by phone at 720-316-4947. Alternatively, you can go to the Keystone Connection Portal at kppm.cincwebaxis.com to sign into your account or you can create a new account if you have not already done so.

Lastly, you can go to the Contacts page of our website at cksii.org and fill out the form. Email is the best way to stay in contact with the community, Board, and the HOA Management team, so please take a moment to update your information.

Through this process so far, one thing is clear, the Architectural and Community Standards currently proposed require more work and refinement before they are presented to the membership for another round of review and feedback. It was suggested we form a committee of both members and board members to work on and refine the standards, and I feel this is an appropriate option to help this initiative move forward.

We have a very busy social and events calendar in June. A list of the June events is provided below. You can also find this information on the Community and Calendar pages of our website at cksii.org.

Sunday, June 4th - Rolling into Summer – Bike Parade and Car Show

I hope to see you out there this month! — Tom Schicktanz – President, CKSII HOA

Please remember to store trashcans out of site as well as RV's, boats and trailers behind the fence. The CCG reported that many homeowners that had a violation were able to address the issue quickly. Woodbourne

From Notes from the May Board Meeting—Happy Summer! School is out (or will be very soon), the pool is open, and dreams spring eternal of what the season holds. There has been a lot of activity in the last month. We are replacing the twenty-two-year-old pool gate to ensure proper function and security. The cleanup of branches and debris from the late March windstorm is complete. The pool resurfacing project is done and the swim team is preparing for their first meet of the summer.

The Annual Homeowners Meeting in April provided us with some extremely helpful feedback. One of those items was that the Board needs to do a better job with our communications. Now that we have added three new members, Tony Brown, Simon Weinstein and Adam Sherris, and are settled into a normal operations model with our managers at ACCU, we should have the ability to spread the workload around and provide updates for each of our projects. Please keep an eye out for sandwich boards and email blasts.

We would like to thank Brittany Rogers for sponsoring the paint recycling drive in May, a huge benefit to all who were able to participate. We have a new date for the electronics recycling and disposal event, August 10, 2023. The truck typically parks at the edge of the tennis courts on West Roxbury Ave. The company assisting with this event is 3R Technology Solutions and their website is www.3rtsinc.com. It lists acceptable items to recycle. More information to come.

Prior to that event are the Annual Woodbourne Garage Sale, Large Trash Pickup, and the Fourth of July parade and activities. Keep an eye out for sandwich boards with the time and a list of activities. There is also a list of dates for all activities for the remainder of 2023 in this newsletter.

As better weather arrives, we have seen a large uptick in ACC submissions. It is exciting to see the projects and upgrades many homeowners are proposing.

That said, Woodbourne is a covenant-controlled community and, as such, we have a process that needs to be followed. The appropriate forms must be submitted and approved, prior to any work being undertaken outside of the house. The ACC committee has thirty days from the submission date to review and communicate with the homeowner as to the decision on the submission. The Board currently conducts ACC submission reviews internally. We would love to hear from interested residents who want to volunteer to be part of a three to five member ACC Committee that reviews submissions for compliance with our current rules and regulations and works with a Board liaison to ensure timely decisions and homeowner communication. If you have any questions about the process or forms needed, please reach out to a Board member or ACCU well in advance of your desired installation or project kick-off.

Another volunteer opportunity for residents is a proposed subcommittee to evaluate and recommend updates to the community clubhouse. The clubhouse is about twenty years old and can certainly do with some sprucing up. If you would like to be a part of that effort, please contact Simon Weinstein at SimonW@woodbournehoa.com.

With school out and residents outside more often during the day, please be cognizant of your vehicle's speed, when entering or exiting the neighborhood. A little caution can prevent a terrible accident with pets, children, or other cars. Our next regular business meeting will be held on June 14, 2023 at 7:00 p.m. at the clubhouse. In the meantime, please contact Melissa Stern at 303-733-1121 with ACCU with any questions.—Woodbourne HOA Board
